The implementation of books of private publication is done with the consent of PTA members for primary school upto grade V. The school has taken utmost care in selecting and verifying the content of given books to be appropriate in all ways.

In the capacity of School Manager , I affirm that there is no objectionable content in the selected books that would hurt the feelings of any class, community, gender, any religious group or society.

From grade VI onwards only NCERT books are used for core subjects including languages. The Booklist for classes I to X is updated at the school website. We also encourage parents to avail books from any local place as per their convenience.

Once again it is reiterated that the academic books being used at Jindal Vidya Mandir are selected by the process of PTA upto grade V and the responsibility of aptness of content delivered to students is owned by the school.
