

JINDAL VIDYA MANDIR, SHOLTU

Leaflet February 2022

From Principal's Desk

February (Magha & Phalguna month) begins with Mauni Amavasya and also witnesses some important festivals like Ganesh Chaturthi, Basnat Panchami, Sant Ravidas Jayanti and Chhatrapati Shivaji Jayanti.

JVM Sholtu reopened after Winter Break to start its academic session 2022 and incorporated Government guidelines for physical classes of the students. School premises is elated again with the presence of students and the children are feeling happy in the company of their friends & beloved teachers after a gap of almost two years. Besides following the routine schedule of school, teaching faculty geared up to host Leadership Meet and started intense preparation to organise JET School Leadership Meet scheduled at Sholtu. School Management of JVM Sholtu is highly thankful to Trustee Mrs. Tanvi Jindal Jee for bestowing the responsibility to host Leadership Meet-2022 at Sholtu. The delegates from Maharashtra & Karnataka region along with beloved JET Head Mr. Srinivas Kotipalli were greeted and hosted by school during 19-25th February 2022. JVM Sholtu Team planned the sessions, activities and site-seeing to ensure the delegates' stay to be an unforgettable experience.

Another important event in the month which was successfully faced & concluded by JVM Sholtu is the certification process related to ISO 21001:2018. A team of four auditors led by Mrs. Preeti Tandon-Regional Manager, TUV SUD South Asia,grilled &scrutinised the process owners for the extended working hours on 25th February before giving positive & satisfied remarks in favour of school. ISO certification to JET Schools will help the school to demonstrate its ability to support the acquisition and development of competence through teaching, learning and research besides giving impetus to processes for the improvement of the system and assurance of conformity to the requirements of learners.

Phalguna month is full of festive season for the local community as they celebrate Faguli (Tribal festival) where they paint the Panthang (Common Room) with creamy colour soil & decorate the walls depicting their livelihood activities. The students of JVM Sholtu from local community celebrated this tribal festival 'Faguli' along with their parents and shared beautiful wall paintings pictures with their class teachers.

THANKS & HAPPY SHIVRATRI

BRAINSTORMING SESSIONS

Great minds at work!!

Visionaries in their meet discussed and decided to take initiatives for the problems faced by students. Great minds came up with great ideas....

Excursion & Experience.....

All the visionaries took a round in nearby village, Punang to connect with mother nature.

TABLEAU- VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

Ms. Deepti Gupta & Ms. Sandhya Sharma together came up with a beautiful script depicting violence against women in our society. A brilliant performance by the girls which was applauded by all the guests. Everyone praised the theme and dramatic skills of the artists.

Ms. Seema Devi prepared a colourful and mesmerizing Kinnauri Nati to give a feel of tribal culture to the delegates. It filled the environment with rhythm and energy. The girls grooved to the kinnauri beats impressing everyone present.

JVM SCHOOL LEADERS WITH UPCOMING LEADERS of SHOLTU

SCHOOL CHALE HUM.....

The school reopened after winter break and the surroundings once again echoed with the noise and laughter of the children. The school building has become lively and the teachers are more than happy to have the kids back. Physical interaction has once again revived the school atmosphere.

Tribal Festival- Faguli

Faguli is a festival celebrated in Kinnaur believing that on this day ancestors come down from heaven in the form of angels. Wishes and desires are depicted on the walls and are believed to be fulfilled by angels.

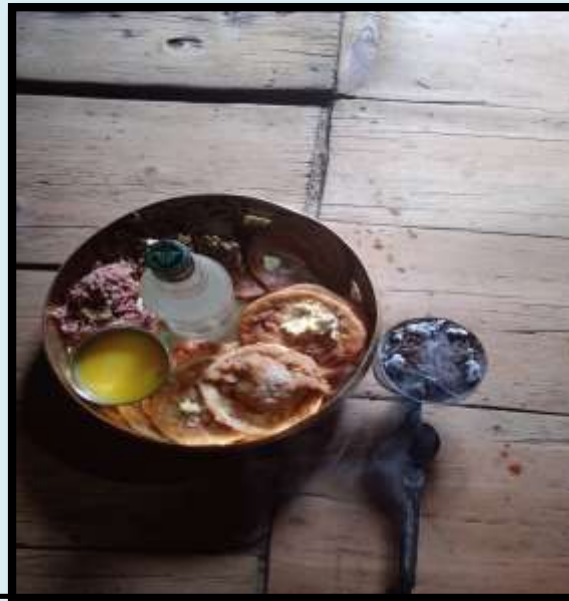

WALL PAINTING

People make local mouth watering dishes on this occasion. Before eating ,it is served to angels in order to make them happy. People of Kinnaur celebrate this occasion and in this way preserve their distinct and rich culture.
